- a dynamic, purposeful and success-oriented team
- a company that has been offering customers and suppliers partnership-oriented service since 1980
- sincere effort for every customer

We will actively shape our future

- ensure innovative and marketable development
- scrutinize „good“ in order to become perfect
- create interesting, fulfilling and modern jobs
- ensure a healthy environment not only with our products, but also with our environmentally conscious attitude
- maintain human values and act sensibly for the success of a company
- bear responsibility towards our customers, employees and society

We create an efficient organization

- simple and unbureaucratic processes
- perfect logistics in order processing & material management
- framework conditions for economic, ecological and safe work
- a user-oriented quality management according to ISO 9001

We want

a „lived“ culture

- provide extensive information
- use every fault consistently as a chance for success
- solving problems together - promoting continuous improvement in small steps
- that our employees continually develop themselves professionally and personally

We offer

STAINLESS STEEL for industry & trade, construction & architecture

- a large warehouse range with high availability
- STAINLESS STEEL know-how at first hand
